

To: The Public Safety Advisory Commission

From: Glenn Steckman

RE: Radio System Update

March 29, 2024

Federal Engineering, who drafted the original bid specifications, has reviewed the Arcticom bid proposal. As part of the review, Federal Engineering discovered some minor variances in Arcticom's proposal from Federal Engineering's specifications. The two companies with the city are working through these minor issues before the bid is submitted to the Mayor and Common Council for approval.