

Summary of Project

Alpha Phi is proposing a remodel of their existing sorority house, which includes new paving to expand parking and improve site access. Exterior changes to the existing building are also proposed to improve aesthetics and ensure the facility is in compliance with current building codes.