The Moore-Lindsay Historical House Museum (MLHHM) was founded in 1974 as the Norman-Cleveland County Historical Museum, the result of a collaboration between the City of Norman and the Cleveland County Historical Society (CCHS). The museum is housed in a beautiful Victorian-style home that was built in 1899 and is a prime example of the success that middle-class families found in Oklahoma Territory. The Historical Society is proud to continue to serve as stewards of the historical house, which is listed on the National Register of Historic Places.

Mission Statement

The Cleveland County Historical Society seeks to research, preserve, and publicize the history of Cleveland County and its people.

Staff

Amy Pence
Museum Manager

Savannah Miller
Assistant Manager

Organizational Goals

Educational Programming and Visitor Experiences

Enhance current educational programs, continue to improve the quality and creativity of exhibits and events, and inspire guests to visit multiple times.

Preservation & Research

Continue researching and preserving artifacts that the museum currently stores, and provide easy access to research materials for the community.

Audience Diversity

Extend offerings for different ages, citizen groups, and organizations within the community.

Community Engagement

Develop new partnerships with other cultural and educational entities in the community in order to broaden the museum's reach to a wider audience.

Fundraising

Seek out new fundraising sources locally and nationally.

For more information on CCHS's goals and strategies for success, our full 2019-2024 Strategic Plan can be viewed online at www.normanmuseum.org/strategicplan.

Archive

CCHS houses its historical collection in the archive room of the Moore-Lindsay Historical House Museum. CCHS collects items of historical significance relating to Cleveland County from the years just prior to the first Oklahoma Territory Land Run to the present day. The majority of the archival collection focuses heavily on documenting Cleveland County's history during Oklahoma's territorial period and early statehood, roughly 1880-1930. Expanding the materials in the archives is an ongoing effort, and more recent donations move the collection's timeline into the middle of the twentieth century. The collection consists of more than 5000 items, including paper archives, photographs, slides, recordings, books, newspapers, furnishings, and artifacts. Additionally, thousands of photographs donated by a local photo studio are awaiting processing and digitization in order to be added to the archive.

FY 22-23 Programming Summary

In FY 22-23, the Moore-Lindsay Historical House Museum (MLHHM) and Cleveland County Historical Society (CCHS) have continued to create a quality visitor experience and pursue the mission of presenting, preserving, and publicizing Cleveland County's history. Throughout the past year, the museum has presented four exhibits and two micro-exhibits, twelve events, eleven children's history camp sessions, and eleven educational workshops for adults. Additionally, we have provided ten field trips, educational group tours, and private workshops, hosted three community group meetings, and participated in two outreach events. A detailed list of museum programming for the year can be found on the next page.

Thanks to an increase in funding from the City of Norman for FY 22-23, the MLHHM was able to hire a second employee, a part-time Assistant Manager for the museum. Savannah Miller was chosen for the position in November 2022. Savannah graduated from the University of Oklahoma with a Bachelor's in anthropology and a minor in history.

The MLHHM is also proud to have received two grants in the last year: an Operational Support Grant from the Norman Arts Council for $6306 to assist in covering the costs of exhibits, educational programming, and necessary supplies; and an ARPA grant from the National Endowment for the Arts, distributed via the Norman Arts Council, for $8,457, which was used to purchase new tables and chairs for museum events, storage cabinets and shelving units, mannequins, and archival storage materials. This grant also allowed the MLHHM to hire five local artists or artisans to assist with various programs throughout the year, increase our advertising efforts, and establish an educational traveling trunk program for local teachers and homeschool parents.

Coming in FY 23-24

Museum staff has planned 2 exhibits, 2 micro-exhibits, 28 educational workshops and camps, and 10 events in FY 23-24. Staff will also conduct field trips, educational group tours, and private workshops as requested by local schools, homeschool groups, clubs, and other organizations.

Participants

In FY 22-23 the Moore-Lindsay House welcomed 2100 visitors, is a 21% increase over FY 21-22. The museum also benefitted from the help of 30 volunteers.

Visitor Numbers

Visitor Ages

Attendance Reasons

Fees & Income

Museum Admission:

Adults & Teens: $5

Children 12 & under: free

Children's workshops & camps: $8

Adult workshops: varied, $15-$45

Photographer Fees: $50/hour

Rental Fee: $50/hour

Birthday Party Package: $150

In May 2023, the MLHHM began to charge an admission fee for museum visitors over the age of 12. In an effort to keep the museum as accessible as possible, the museum remains free for children, SNAP card holders, and CCHS members, and staff may reduce or waive admission fees as appropriate. MLHHM camps and workshops are affordable at $8 per person for children's classes and $15-45 per person for adult classes. Photographers can rent the historical house to use as a photography set, the historical house and carriage house can be rented out for small events, and the museum also offers a Victorian tea party birthday party package; all of these offerings bring in supplemental funds to support museum programming.

Percentage of Expenditures Paid By Non-City Funds FY 2018-19 - FY 2022-23

Additional income sources include the museum gift shop, grants, royalties on CCHS books, and fundraisers. In FY 22-23, the museum offered more Children's History Camp sessions and adult workshops, partnered with two local paranormal investigation groups to conduct investigations at the historical house with a portion of ticket sales benefitting the museum, and hosted the first annual Springtime Tea, which is expected to be the museum's largest fundraiser event each year. The museum was also chosen by the Norman Arts Council to receive two grants this fiscal year, totaling over $14,700 in additional funds. Staff continue to seek additional fundraising and grant opportunities to support the museum's operations.

Percentage of Total Expenditure Paid By Income Source, FY 22-23

Use of FY 22-23 City Funds

City of Norman funds are used to pay for the basic necessities of running the museum: the museum manager's salary and the assistant manager's hourly wage, the cost of utilities for the building, and fees for the accountant who handles museum payroll and taxes. This frees up funding from other sources to cover the costs of museum programming and necessary supplies. Other uses of City funds include purchasing health insurance for the museum manager, providing internet service for museum staff to use for research purposes, paying bank account fees for the account holding the funds, and paying the fee for the yearly City of Norman registration for our alarm system. At this time, it would be impossible to continue operating the museum without this essential funding.

FY 22-23 City Grant Funds

Funding Request for FY 24-25

CCHS was appointed by the City of Norman to serve as guardian of the Moore-Lindsay Historical House Museum in 1974. The society has proudly served in that role since that time, with the support of an annual grant from the City. For 6 years, 2015 to 2021, that grant was $30,870 a year. In FY 22-23, the City generously increased that budget to $41,500 to allow CCHS to hire a part-time assistant manager for the MLHHM and provide health insurance for the museum manager. In FY 23-24, the City again increased our budget, this time to $44,500, to cover the full cost of the manager's health insurance.

CCHS requests that the annual grant from the City remains unchanged this year. We request $44,500 for FY 2024-25.

Museum staff is extremely grateful for this grant from the City and is committed to using these funds to expand the positive effects that the museum has on Norman via community-responsive programming, policies focusing on equity, exhibits featuring diversity, and outreach to local schools and community groups to assess their educational needs and offer assistance.
