Transco Events on Frederick hosts Haunted Bazaar

By TAYLOR NOHRENBERG

reporter@oelweindailyregister.com

Matt "Grimm" Flower has quite the fascination for Halloween, given that Grimm has been his hallowed nickname for over 37 years.

Friday evening on Halloween, Flower was dressed to the nines in a red devil business suit for his first-ever Haunted Bazaar held at Transco Events on Frederick, an event he has been diligently preparing for for quite some time.

"To be honest, last Christmas, I was driving through town in the Old Tyme Christmas and there were so many people and it was such a huge event, and I was like, 'You know what? We need one for

TAYLOR NOHRENBERG I Oelwein Daily Register

Matt Grimm Flower, organizer of the festive Haunted Bazaar Friday evening and owner of Grimm's Custom Creations, said he was inspired by Oelwein's Olde Tyme Christmas to create a special event for Halloween.
