ADMINISTRATIVE BUSINESS

Budget Discussion with RGS

City Manager Joe Goodman provided background on the current preliminary budget, which was adopted on June 17, 2025, with a commitment to revisit it by October 2025 to develop long-term strategies for achieving a structurally balanced budget. Mr. Goodman reviewed budget deficits dating back to fiscal year 2022–2023.

He noted that the deficit has grown over the past few years and cannot be resolved immediately. Mr. Goodman recommended that the Council approve the adopted FY 2025–2026 budget while the City conducts a thorough evaluation of all funds. He also reported that staff and RGS continue to identify errors and omissions in the City's financial records related to the transition to the new software system.

Mr. Goodman presented the idea of hiring a part-time employee with accounting expertise to support the transition to Tyler, enhance staff capacity, and assist in identifying the structural changes necessary to achieve a balanced budget. He also shared that he has been working with RGS to prepare a structurally balanced budget outline for FY 2026–2027 that includes all City funds. Reviewing all funds will help the Council more effectively prioritize needs and gain a clearer understanding of the City's overall expenditures.

Unknown speaker suggested that an ordinance be created regarding the budget deficit.

Council discussed the possibility of hiring an additional employee with accounting expertise for a one-year term to assist with financial management. The Council briefly discussed the current budget and the deficits from previous fiscal years.

ACTION: Councilmember McDermott moved, seconded by Vice Mayor Tolle, to Authorize staff to hire a part-time employee with accounting expertise for an initial one-year term, renewable upon successful performance, and proceed with the proposed process and schedule to evaluate the City's fiscal health and develop the structural changes needed to restore the General Fund to a balanced budget. Motion carried by a voice vote, 5-0.

Flag Display on Walker St. and Policy for City Property

City Attorney Scott Drexel addressed a community request to display Mexican flags in existing sidewalk holes along Walker Street during significant Hispanic holidays. Mr. Drexel explained that this issue involves two parts: first, the need for the City to establish a formal flag display policy, and second, obtaining approval for any displays along Walker Street, which lies within Caltrans' right-of-way.

Mr. Drexel briefly provided background on the topic, stating that the City received a request to display Mexican flags along Walker Street during Cinco de Mayo, Día de los Muertos, and Mexican Independence Day. Mr. Drexel noted that the sidewalk holes in question were drilled approximately 25 years ago with Caltrans' permission and are currently used by the Orland Flag Society to display American flags on national holidays and other occasions. These displays occur without formal City oversight.

Mr. Drexel stated that this request highlights the fact that the City does not currently have a flag policy. He shared that many cities have begun developing such policies following a 2022 U.S. Supreme Court decision, which held that cities may control what flags are displayed on City property if the displays are considered government speech. Establishing a policy would formally designate flag displays as City speech rather than a public forum, ensuring clarity and consistency in future requests.

Mayor Romano opened the discussion to the public, stating that the City Council meets to "form a more perfect union" and to allow for justice and tranquility. He noted that everyone has different views and encouraged the community to be respectful of one another's freedom of speech and to be kind to their neighbors.

Vice Mayor Tolle asked whether the banner that crosses SR 32, which is used to promote City events, should also be addressed in the flag policy. City Attorney Drexel agreed, noting that including the banner would clarify what can and cannot be displayed.
