D. Waiver. Failure to respond or inaction within the specified time will result in waiver of the right to a Skelly meeting and in the proposed discipline taking effect.

E. Skelly Officer. Upon a written request for a Skelly meeting, the City shall appoint a Skelly Officer. The Skelly Officer shall be the City Manager, a department head other than the one proposing the discipline, or such other person as the City may designate who has not been involved in the proposed disciplinary action. The Skelly Officer will meet with the employee, listen to the arguments, and receive documents presented by the employee. A Skelly response may also be submitted in writing instead of an in-person meeting. Within a reasonable time, and in writing, the Skelly Officer shall respond to the employee and the employee's representative, if applicable. The Skelly Officer may dismiss, modify, or sustain the proposed discipline. The Skelly Officer's decision shall be in writing.

F. Final Notice. If the proposed discipline is sustained or modified by the Skelly Officer, the disciplinary action shall be implemented. A final Notice of Disciplinary Action shall be provided to the employee in writing, shall advise the employee that the discipline is to be placed in the employee's official personnel file, and shall advise the employee of the appeal rights available under Section 10.03 of this Memorandum of Understanding, if any.

G. No Change to Appeal Rights. Nothing in this Section creates, expands, or alters any right of appeal. Appeals remain governed exclusively by Section 10.03 of this Memorandum of Understanding. Consistent with Section 10.01, this Article does not apply to employees dismissed while on probation.
