Hi, Erica and Glen.

Thanks for your email and for your call this morning. As I stated during our call, CIRSA itself does not provide general counsel town attorney services, and my office is not able to provide legal representation for the Town as interim Town Attorney.

My suggestion is that the Town reach out to attorneys/firms that have experience/expertise in municipal law to determine if they may have interest in serving the Town as interim Town Attorney. The following (in no particular order) are names of attorneys/firms that I am familiar with that I would suggest contacting to determine if they have interest (for each one I noted the name of the partner(s) who could be contacted, though most of these firms have multiple attorneys that provide general counsel services).

- Wilson, Williams, Fellman, Dittman; <https://wwfdlaw.com/>, Nina Williams or Geoff Wilson
- Widner Juran; <https://www.lawwj.com/>, Bob Widner
- Hoffman, Parker Wilson & Carberry; <https://hpwclaw.com/>, Corey Hoffman or Kendra Carberry
- Michow Guckenberger McAskin LLP; <https://mgmfirm.com/>, Linda Michow
- Murray Dahl Beery & Renaud; <https://www.mdbrlaw.com/>, Jerry Dahl or Joe Rivera
- Norton & Smith; <https://www.nortonsmithlaw.com/>, Erin Smith
- Karp, Neu, Hanlon, www.mountainlawfirm.com, Karl Hanlon (this firm is based out of Glenwood Springs)
- Cockrel Ela Glesne Greher & Ruhland, <https://www.cegrlaw.com/> (primarily represents districts but may do municipal work)
