Facade visible from frontage: Design Option A

Please note that, in order to manage structural load and optimize building performance, brick veneer will be applied only to the portions of the façade visible from the frontage.

