Which Board do you wish to participate on: Planning Board Board of Adjustment

Please explain briefly why you are seeking appointment to this board:

I find joy in volunteering and have a desire to give back to the community. Growing up in Pineville as a child and moving back as an adult makes me appreciate the Town and I would like to use any of my skills to help the board.

Please describe any professional experience you may have that would be relevant to this board:

I'm good with organizing using Excel creative thinker and look at challenges as an opportunity to think outside the box to figure out the best outcome.

Please describe any committees, organizations or other boards you may have participated on or educational background you have that would qualify you for this position on the board:

Currently volunteer with the Pineville Parks and Rec and enjoy collaborating with others to improve and make Pineville a even more desirable Town to live.

Please tell us anything else about yourself that would be beneficial to this board:

I love the community and have a desire to serve in any capacity that is helpful. Volunteering is good for the mind, body and soul while gaining a deeper understanding of our community.
