Ms. Stone presented an update of the event including the scope of services provided by Cedarbrook Media and the Town. The proposed services were reviewed by the Community Engagement Committee with recommendation(s) to add more detailed timelines within the contract and to eliminate the flat fee paid by the Town. Staff is requesting direction on the proposed recommendations.

Mr. Canizares elaborated on the flat fee, which was historically a cost paid for Police Department Services.

The Town Council discussed if the Town would be receiving a percentage of sales, consistency of the contract compared to other events, special event permitting and the requirements needed with submittal, insurance requirements and timeline, and any associated penalties within the terms of service.

The Town Council agreed to eliminate the flat fee, but requested staff to communicate that the fee be used towards expanding the event, and explore what other municipalities do regarding insurance for special events.
