Town Council Special Meeting – May 16, 2023

Agenda Item:

Consider and act upon an ordinance canvassing the returns and declaring the results of the May 6, 2023, Special Election.

Description of Agenda Item:

The Town of Prosper held a Special Election on May 6, 2023, in accordance with the Texas Election Code. Collin County and Denton County Early Voting Ballot Boards conduct and complete their counts of any outstanding ballots and must notify entities as soon as possible and/or by May 17, 2023. The Town has received Denton County final “Unofficial” results but has not received the final “Unofficial” results from Collin County due to any possible outstanding provisional and/or overseas military ballots.

The following reflects the “unofficial” tabulation of results. If the Town is informed of any changes to the totals, the ordinance will be updated prior to the meeting. All results are considered “unofficial” until canvassed.

Proposition A - Crime Control &amp; Prevention District
Combined Totals	Early Voting In-Person	Early Voting Mail	Election Day In-Person	Provisional Ballots	Total	Vote %

Amy Bartley, Place 3 and Jeff Hodges, Place 5 ran unopposed in the General Election; therefore, the Town Council was able to cancel the General Election declaring the incumbents elected.
