
Sec. 101-98. Expiration of building permits.

Except as otherwise provided under this section, a building permit authorizing the construction or alteration of a building or structure in the residential district expires 365 days following the date of its issuance and a building permit authorizing the construction or alteration of a building or structure in a C-1 district, C-2 district, GI district or PUD district expires 365 days following the date of its issuance. If a project is found by the building official to be in compliance with this division, work may be continued into a 15-day grace period following the expiration of the permit period.
