

Zoning Board of Appeals – Appointment of Richard Butera

Richard Butera has been a resident of Roscoe for over 25 years and is a general practice attorney with more than 40 years of legal experience. His background includes handling zoning variance matters and real estate transactions, offering valuable insight into land use and property law. His professional expertise and long-standing commitment to the community make him a strong addition to the Zoning Board of Appeals.