

The National High School Trail Championship (NHSTC) is a trail race for high school athletes. The fourth running of the NHSTC will be held on Saturday, July 24, 2021 in Salida, Colorado. The race will feature switchbacks, climbs, descents and rocks to give athletes the opportunity to showcase their strength, finesse and trail running prowess.

WHAT: Featuring switchbacks, climbs and descents, it doesn't get any more trail than this - and they don't call it the Rocky Mountains for nothing. Race distance is 5.4 miles.

WHEN: The race is Saturday, July 24, 2021, on the Salida Mountain Trails system. The Beas Knees Citizens race starts at 7:20 a.m. The Boys' Championship starts at 8:20 a.m. and the Girls' Championship starts at 8:45 a.m.

WHO: The NHSTC is open to all current high school athletes and is extended to include incoming freshman and 2021 high school graduates. There is no qualifying race for the NHSTC. However, due to course limitations, we will cap the race sizes when we hit our maximum numbers. The NHSTC will crown a team champion and individual champion for the girls and boys.

There is an individual competition and also a category for a three person team competition. To be considered for the team championship, all team members must attend the same high school. All racers on teams will also be eligible for individual awards. Teams of three to five individuals may register under a club name. We will score the top three competitors from each team.

WHERE: Salida, Colorado, specifically, on the Salida Mountain Trails system. To check out Salida Mountain Trails, go to <http://salidamountaintrails.org>.

THE RACE

The NHSTC will begin and end near the Arkansas River by downtown Salida, Colorado on Saturday, July 24, 2021.

Elevation of the start and finish comes in at 7,057 feet and the high point of the course will top out at 7,558. The planned route will cover 5.4 miles. There will be ample opportunity for passing during the first 1.85 miles of the route. Racers will begin their NHSTC experience by following a dirt road for approximately .7 mile. This will allow room for the race to spread out before hitting trail.
