

Salida Mountain Trails (SMT) is organizing the long-running Banana Belt Mountain Bike Race. SMT has organized this event for the past two years in partnership with Salida Parks and Recreation. This year, SMT is managing the event independently. The event will be held on Sunday, September 15.

This year's event will return the Banana Belt to its traditional location, on Methodist Mountain. (The event moved to the Arkansas Hills Trails following the 2019 Decker Fire.) This year's 26-mile-long course begins at the Vandaveer Open Space. From there, riders will depart on CR104 to Hwy. 50, turn right, and follow Hwy. 50 to CR 101. Participants will turn right onto CR101 and ride up to the Rainbow Trail, then head northwest to Pot o' Gold, and finish by following Double Rainbow, Spartan West, Spartan East, and Solstice. The finish line will be at the end of Solstice, not at the starting line. This is to prevent the race from finishing with active competition on CR107 while the road is open to traffic.

From the finish line, volunteers will guide riders to CR107, which will take them a short downhill back to Vandaveer Ranch on CR 108. At the finish, each participant will receive a meal and drink ticket, which are included with registration. Food and drink will be purchased and/or donated by local businesses, including beer from Soulcraft Brewing for riders 21+. Food and drink will be stored in a refrigerated trailer we rent every year for this event.

SMT will place sandwich board signs on roads alerting drivers to the race. Course marshals will control traffic and direct riders at key intersections. Advance notice will also be given through flyers at trailheads, on social media, via email, and in PR to local media.
