
Sec. 6-48. Special temporary licenses.

- (a) Charitable and benevolent organizations. The mayor shall have the power to issue temporary licenses for the sale at retail of alcoholic beverages, limited only to beer and wine, to any banquet, picnic, fair, game, bazaar or similar assembly. Such temporary licenses shall be only issued to a fraternal, benevolent, charitable or religious organization organized not for pecuniary profit. Such temporary licenses shall be issued for a period not to exceed three calendar days. No more than two such temporary licenses shall be granted to any such organization in any one period of seven calendar days. Such licenses shall not permit the sale of alcoholic beverages in any place where such sale is otherwise prohibited by law. The temporary licenses shall be for on-premises consumption only. The fee shall be $35.00 for each temporary license. Any organization seeking a temporary license shall file with the mayor a written request therefor, together with proof of dram shop insurance, a statement as to the party responsible within the organization for requesting the issuance of such license and for the sale of such alcoholic beverages and a list of all organization officers, if any. There shall be only two such licenses available to any such organization per city fiscal year.
- (b) Temporary license, sale or consumption on city-owned or -controlled property.
- (1) It is unlawful for any person, firm or corporation to sell or offer for sale or to consume or furnish for consumption alcoholic liquors on any property owned by the city, except in conjunction with a city celebration or event sponsored by a religious, fraternal, national or local service, civic organization, eleemosynary institution, or other not-for-profit organization or specifically authorized by the city, for which a temporary celebration or event license has been duly issued by the local liquor control commissioner limited to the sale at retail of beer and wine only. Said license shall state the specific terms and conditions thereof, together with the lawful days and hours of sale and consumption. Said license shall not be issued for a period which exceeds two days, and no more than one license may be issued for said event.
- (2) No person, firm or corporation shall apply for a temporary license in conjunction with a celebration or event, wherein the prospective temporary licensee intends to sell, serve or dispense alcoholic liquors on any property owned by the city, unless such person, firm or corporation has previous to the application for such liquor license made formal application to the city council, and has secured the permission of such council, by formal action, to hold such celebration or event, including sale, service and dispensing of alcoholic liquors limited to beer and wine on city-owned property, in connection therewith.
- (c) Proof of dram shop insurance. The licensee shall have proof of dram shop insurance and the parties responsible for the actual operation and sale of the alcoholic liquor.
- (d) Agreement between licensee and sponsor of event. The city or local liquor control commissioner may require an agreement between the prospective licensee and/or the sponsor of the event under subsection (a) or (b) of this section concerning the details of the parties' rights and duties.
