

Libraries in Clackamas County (LINCC)

Core Values

- We defend the right of free expression of ideas and the right to access and read information presenting all points of view on current and historical issues.
- We build and nurture vibrant communities by providing lifelong opportunities to learn, connect, share ideas, and strengthen relationships.
- We protect the right to privacy and confidentiality of library users of all ages, including information sought or received and resources consulted, borrowed, acquired, or transmitted.
- We respect the dignity of all people, celebrate the diversity of our communities, and foster a welcoming and inclusive atmosphere of belonging, where all backgrounds and needs are valued and considered.
- We build and maintain our communities' trust through transparent communication, listening and adapting to emerging needs, and ethical stewardship of public resources.
