

ATTACHED TO 02/05/2024 CITY COUNCIL MINUTES

Hi, my name is Faith Stewart. I live here, run a couple of local businesses, and volunteer with D31, co-chairing National Night Out, which funds Shop With A Cop and the Community Kindness Program.

I am here tonight with my concerns as a member of the community.

Last week in a meeting with the city manager and assistant city manager, I asked what Mr. Jensen's new vision for the police department is, because the things on his resume have already been done in Sandy. The answer was that he will take a wait and see approach, learn, and view things through a different lens. We all view things through a different lens, so I'd still like to hear what his new vision for the police department is, because it must have played a big part in the decision, and it must be good for the community of Sandy.

The Law Enforcement Code of Ethics holds police officers to a higher standard of professional performance both on and off the job. Have you all seen the nun chucks video? If you haven't, it was recorded after a concert, and in the video Mr. Jensen and some other officers are standing around inside the venue. Mr. Jensen hands his weapon to another officer, who uses it to whip another man who shows the camera the mark it made. Mr. Jensen then shakes the man's hand and gives him a challenge coin. Yes, this was a number of years ago, but it was still the Chief of Police in his uniform, leading by example.

How is this good for the community of Sandy? What if former Chief Roberts or Interim Chief Lundry had handed over their baton to someone to strike another person with while being recorded and standing there on duty?

Lastly, I understand that it can be a liability for an employer to give an employee a bad review. What I have learned through talking with people in Logan City, Utah is that those who have worked with or under Mr. Jensen dislike him, and those who worked above him (for example the mayor, HR) automatically give him positive reviews. Why do you think so many people I've spoken with in Utah are afraid to go on record with statements about their personal experience? How is this going to be good for us, the community of Sandy?

Thank you and I yield the remainder of my time.

The IACP adopted the Law Enforcement Code of Ethics at the 64th Annual IACP Conference and Exposition in October 1957. The Code of Ethics stands as a preface to the mission and commitment law enforcement agencies make to the public they serve.

Law Enforcement Code of Ethics

As a law enforcement officer, my fundamental duty is to serve the community; to safeguard lives and property; to protect the innocent against deception, the weak against oppression or intimidation and the peaceful against violence or disorder; and to respect the constitutional rights of all to liberty, equality, and justice.

I will keep my private life unsullied as an example to all and will behave in a manner that does not bring discredit to me or to my agency. I will maintain courageous calm in the face of danger, scorn or ridicule; develop self-restraint; and be constantly mindful of the welfare of others. Honest in thought and deed both in my personal and official life, I will be exemplary in obeying the law and the regulations of my department. Whatever I see or hear of a confidential nature or that is confided to me in my official capacity will be kept ever secret unless revelation is necessary in the performance of my duty.

I will never act officiously or permit personal feelings, prejudices, political beliefs, aspirations, animosities or friendships to influence my decisions. With no compromise for crime and with relentless prosecution of criminals, I will enforce the law courteously and appropriately without fear or favor, malice or ill will, never employing unnecessary force or violence and never accepting gratuities.

I recognize the badge of my office as a symbol of public faith, and I accept it as a public trust to be held so long as I am true to the ethics of police service. I will never engage in acts of corruption or bribery, nor will I condone such acts by other police officers. I will cooperate with all legally authorized agencies and their representatives in the pursuit of justice.

I know that I alone am responsible for my own standard of professional performance and will take every reasonable opportunity to enhance and improve my level of knowledge and competence.

I will constantly strive to achieve these objectives and ideals, dedicating myself before God to my chosen profession... law enforcement.
