

Sanger Public Library Behavior Policy

General:

To facilitate the library's mission, library patrons are expected to demonstrate respect for public property, library staff and the rights of other patrons through adherence to the following guidelines.

1. Patrons are expected to obey city, state, and federal laws and ordinances. Persons observed violating said laws will be reported to the proper authorities.
2. Children must abide by the same rules of behavior that apply to all patrons. Children persisting in disruptive behavior will be asked to leave the library and library privileges may be suspended or revoked.
3. Children under the age of ten and children with special needs must follow the guidelines outlined in the unattended children's policy. (see policy)
4. In the event that a child is left at library closing, staff will assess the situation. Staff may contact the police.
5. Responsible behavior is expected. Patrons are expected to respect the personal space and boundaries of others by maintaining an appropriate distance and refraining from any intrusive or unwelcome behavior.
