

§ 9.407. Return of Borrowed Materials; Fine.

Every person, including the parent or guardian of a child under the age of seventeen (17) years, who shall take or borrow from the city's public library any book, periodical, electronic device, or other property and neglect, refuse or fail to return the same within the specified lending period, will be sent overdue notices and will lose borrowing privileges and use of the library's computers if materials are not promptly returned. If the library materials in question were lost or damaged, the cardholder or the parent/guardian of the minor cardholder, shall be responsible for either the cost of replacement, or the actual replacement, and any associated processing fees, or shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and on conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine in accordance with the general penalty provision set forth in Section 1.109 of this code for each offense. Provided such legal action is taken, a notice by certified mail with return receipt requested will be sent to the mailing address noted in the library account. In addition, electronic devices are subject to late fines assessed by the library.
