4) Approval of Minutes

Dennis made a motion to approve the minutes. Blake seconded the motion and the motion was approved by all board members present.

5) Citizens Comments

No citizens were present or submitted comments either directly or through the weed board members. The weed board members listed several persons who had weed issues previously.

6) Supervisor Report

Frank reported that we will bring back the seasonal weed employees on April 12th and that we were lucky to have Don Andrews and Rianna Shumway return for the 2021 season. Frank reported that Don and Rianna will each be running their own spray trucks and he will run a third smaller spray rig allowing him to spend more time on discovery, enforcement and spray scheduling. Frank reported that we have our New Honda 4 wheeler spray rig ready to go. He reported that we will submit a "General Notice to Control Noxious Weeds" for publication in the San Juan Record and bulletin boards in La Sal, Monticello, Blanding and Bluff. Frank has reformatted the general weed notice to indicate the 5 categories noxious weeds are listed under in Utah. Frank reported that we will send a friendly preemptive weed control notice to all previous weed letter recipients. Weed department will have extinguishers, spare tires, jacks, lug wrenches, inflators, plug kits and tow straps. Mack McDonald reported that no one has applied for Blaine Nebekers weed board spot.

7) Business/Action

Frank presented the reformatted “General Notice to Control Noxious Weeds” for Weed Board Approval. This document was approved for distribution.
