AGENDA ITEMS

1. Briefing and Update Regarding the 2023 Eclipse Taking Place on October 14, 2023, Tammy Gallegos

Time Stamp 0:0:50 (audio & video)

Tammy Gallegos, Emergency Preparedness Director, spoke of all of the resources and staff brought in for the Annular Eclipse. She estimates that a crowd of 6,000 to 10,000 will be in the county to view the eclipse. She indicated that 70-80 additional staff will be coming in for law enforcement, emergency services, and crowd control from the Forest Service, Bureau of Land Management, National Parks Service, Utah Navajo Health System, San Juan County, and the State of Utah, all of which will have key roles in the emergency management plan during the eclipse. Commissioner Harvey spoke of the significance of the eclipse event for the more traditional Native Americans.

2. Aging Services and Emergency Operations Department Overview, Tammy Gallegos

Time Stamp 0:25:35 a.m. (audio & video)

Tammy Gallegos, Aging Services Director, presented an overview of the Aging programs that the county participates in with the federal government. The county runs the congregate meal, home delivered meal, nutrition education, legal assistance, ombudsmen, veteran, nursing home options, and other services for county residents who are sixty years of age or older.

Emergency Management Services are staffed by three employees (none full-time) who work in other grant programs. They participate in incidents ranging from Type 5 to Type 1 events. The county emergency management coordination extends to the state, tribal and federal level.

ADJOURNMENT

Time Stamp 1:11:22 (audio & video)

Commission Chair Adams called for an adjournment at 10:11 a.m.
