AGENDA ITEMS

1. Presentation for the San Juan County Utah Tax Commission. Joseph Thomas, Oil and Gas Valuation Analyst

Time Stamp 0:00:48 (audio & video)

Joseph Thomas, oil & gas analyst, presented an overview of their differing analyst roles in the Utah State Tax Commission, Centrally Assessed Department. The analysts attempt to determine the fair market value of the property, usually in mining, oil, pipelines, utilities, and natural resources, which cross over multiple county boundaries. Property valuations for the past ten years have increased for residential, and personal property, but decreased in utilities and natural resources. The reasons for the decline in natural resource values were discussed in-depth. The increase in interest rates along with reductions in mining contributed to the over-all shift of the tax burden to the individual property taxpayer.
