Commission Business - Arts

Arts 1: The first item under Arts Business was an update on the Silver Box Art on Loan Program.

Ms. Upton will be reaching out to the three currently participating artists to schedule deinstallation by Sept 21st, 2024. Commissioners discussed starting a new Silver Box Cycle for a period of six months. The call for art would utilize a new template approved by leadership and run for two weeks. The call would be distributed through the city's social media networks. The artist stipend for the six-month cycle would be $500.

Motion made by Commissioner McAlister to approve a new six-month Silver Box cycle with the new template format. Seconded by Commissioner Decker.

Voting Yea: Chair Susnis, Commissioner Combs, Commissioner Shook, Commissioner Gray, Commissioner Lithgow, Commissioner Decker, Commissioner McAlister.

Arts 2: The next item under Arts Business was an update on the Paint the Plow Community Art Project.

Commissioner Susnis displayed the "Name the Plow" informational display and ballots for the, "Paint the Plows," community driven art project and asked all commissioners to fill out a ballot on their way out. The public is also invited to participate in naming the plows by casting a ballot at either Sandpoint City Hall (1123 Lake St) or Miller Paint (714 Pine St).

Arts 3: The final item under Arts business was an update on placemaking in the downtown parking lot.

Ms. Upton shared that project details will continue to get hashed out over the winter. Current project timeline is aiming for a Spring installation.

Commission Business - Culture

Culture 1: Community Character Hour Radio Show topic.

Ms. Upton and Commissioner Combs have decided on, "The Long Bridge," as a topic for the September Community Character Hour Radio Show which airs every fourth Monday of the month.

Commission Business - Historic Preservation

HP 1: Ms. Upton gave an update on the August Historic Walking Tour.

The tour takes place the fourth Friday of the month June - September. LPO Rep actor Michael Bigly has led every tour this summer but is unavailable for the final September tour. The ACHP is looking for an alternate local historic storyteller for the Sept 27th tour.

HP 2: The final item under Historic Preservation was a discussion about outreach for the Historic Residential 'Call for Information'.

Commissioner Susnis designed a door hanger for the Historic Residential Call for Information. Commissioner Gray volunteered to organize a small group to prep the hangers for distribution, schedule distribution and maintain a record of addresses that have already received a hanger.
