SUMMARY

SUMMARY STATEMENT

National Volunteer Week has been celebrated each year the third week in April since 1974. Snoqualmie has recognized its volunteers for over a decade.

It is estimated that volunteers provided their skills and energy for approximately 5000+ hours that contributed toward programs and services benefitting the Snoqualmie community. Volunteer efforts included:

- Service on 12 City Commissions or Committees.
- Community Art Outreach Programs Chalk the Block and Plein Air Paint Out, for youth and adults
- Vaccination clinics, Snoqualmie Days Pancake Breakfast and Santa Food Drive held by Volunteer Firefighters

Snoqualmie will celebrate its volunteers on Thursday, April 20, 2023.

RECOMMENDED ACTION

Proclaim April 20, 2023, as Volunteer Appreciation Day in the City of Snoqualmie and encourage all residents to recognize and extend appreciation to the many volunteers who make Snoqualmie a special place.
