ARTICLE 1 RECOGNITION, UNION MEMBERSHIP AND PAYROLL DEDUCTION

1.1 Recognition – The Employer recognizes the Union as the exclusive bargaining representative for all full-time and part-time classifications contained in Appendix A, A.1.

1.2 Payroll Deduction – The Employer agrees to deduct from the paycheck of each employee who has so authorized it, in accordance with RCW 41.56.110, the regular initiation fee, regular monthly dues, assessments and other fees as certified by the Union. The amounts deducted shall be transmitted monthly to the Union on behalf of the employees involved. The performance of this function is recognized as a service to the Union by the Employer. The Union agrees to indemnify and hold the Employer harmless from all claims, demands, suits or other forms of liability that arise against the Employer for deducting dues from Union members including all issues related to the deduction of dues or fees.

An employee's request to revoke authorization for payroll deductions must be in writing and submitted to the Union. After the Employer receives confirmation from the Union that the employee has revoked authorization for deductions, the Employer shall end the deduction no later than the second pay cycle after receipt of the confirmation.

1.3 Union Notification – Within ten (10) calendar days or as soon as possible from the date of hire of a new employee, the Employer will forward to the Union the name, address, work email, and personal telephone number of the new employee. Social security numbers will be provided to the Union when authorized by the employee. The Employer will promptly notify the Union of all employees leaving its employment.

1.3.1 New-Hire Orientation - The Union and shop steward will have 30 minutes to provide information on the Teamsters benefits and rights to all employees eligible for membership. This ideally will happen within fourteen (14) calendar days of the employee's hire date but will not be later than ninety (90) calendar days. Employees have the option to attend or not attend the orientation.

1.4 Temporary Workers – A “Temporary” employee is defined as an employee employed for less than twelve hundred (1200) hours in a twelve (12) consecutive month period.

	Less than 1200 hours in a consecutive 12-month period	More than 1200 hours in a consecutive 12-month period
In the bargaining unit and covered by the CBA?	No	Yes

In the event a Temporary employee is employed for more than 1200 hours in a consecutive 12-month period, the employee shall become a member of this bargaining unit. Failing to reach a resolution at Step 2, the employee may take the issue to the appropriate government agency (EEOC, Washington State Human Rights Commission) for investigation and appropriate action in lieu of pursuing the grievance to Step 3. This does not stop the Union from pursuing charges with PERC (Public Employment Relations Commission) and a grievance.

ARTICLE 3 UNION RIGHTS

- 3.1 Union officials (Shop Stewards or members of the Bargaining Committee) will have a reasonable amount of time off with pay to investigate grievances and fulfill their duties as a Union official as long as those activities do not interfere with normal routine functions of the Department.

ARTICLE 4 HOURS OF WORK, CALLBACK AND OVERTIME

- 4.1 Hours of Work - The FLSA (Federal Labor Standards Act) work week begins Sunday at 12:01 am and ends the following Saturday at midnight, unless an employee works a 9/80 schedule in which case the FLSA (Federal Labor Standards Act) workweek begins at the midpoint of the 8-hour shift.

The normal workweek for all employees consists of five (5) consecutive days of eight (8) consecutive hours, or four (4) consecutive days of ten (10) consecutive hours excluding meal periods as assigned by the Department Head. Workweeks that include a Saturday and/or a Sunday shall be assigned by shift bidding by departmental seniority. Seniority bids will take place on a quarterly basis.

Part-Time Employees: The Employer will schedule part-time employees based on the requirements of the position.

- 4.1.1 Alternative Schedules - By written mutual agreement between the Employer and the employee, an employee may be assigned a work schedule other than those set forth in Section 4.1, such as flex-time, staggered start times, alternate schedules, or telecommuting, if there is adequate coverage for the Employer's established work day. There will be no pyramiding of overtime as a result of this provision.
- 4.1.2 Notice of Schedule Change – With the exception of emergency conditions and changes requested by an employee, notice of a schedule change will be no less than ten (10) calendar days. The Employer cannot change an employee's schedule to circumvent them from receiving overtime.

- 4.2 Rest Periods - The following rest periods supersede WAC 296-126-092 pursuant to RCW 49.12.187. Employees will receive a paid rest period of fifteen (15) minutes for each four (4) hour work period. For employees who do not have the discretion to take rest periods at their convenience, rest periods will be scheduled as near as possible to the midpoint of each four (4) hour work period or as otherwise directed by the employee's supervisor for operational reasons. No employee will be required to work more than three (3) hours without a rest period. Rest periods may not be combined with meal periods or used to arrive late or leave early.
- 4.3 Meal Periods - The following meal periods supersede WAC 296-126-092 pursuant to RCW 49.12.187. Employees will receive an unpaid meal period of thirty (30) minutes scheduled by the employee's supervisor. No employee is required to work more than five (5) consecutive hours without a meal period. An employee who is directed by the Employer to work during their meal period will be paid overtime for the meal period. The meal period may be increased to one hour, as long as it is mutually agreed to between the Employer and the employee. A meal period may be waived by an employee, with prior approval of the Employer, on an individual basis.
- 4.4 Meal Reimbursement Whenever an employee is authorized to work on a non-scheduled overtime basis (i.e. overtime due to an emergency or call-in) and it has been at least five (5) hours since their last meal period, the employee will be provided with a meal or a meal payment of fifteen dollars ($15.00), subject to payroll taxes. In such instances, employees shall receive an additional meal or payment for every five (5) hours in excess of the initial five (5) hour period. Meal periods will not be taken as a result of working overtime.
- 4.5 Callback - An employee who has left work and is called back to work in person after completion of a regular shift or on a regularly scheduled day off will be paid a minimum of three (3) hours at the overtime rate. Employees will not be entitled to additional minimum payments for each callout within the initial three (3) hour callout, but instead shall be paid only for actual time worked. There will be no pyramiding of overtime as a result of this provision. An employee who is called in prior to the start of a regular shift will be paid only for actual time worked, and is not entitled to a three-hour minimum payment under this section if the callout is less than three hours from the start of the regular shift. If the call back can be handled via Virtual Private Network from the Employee's home or otherwise handled remotely, the employee will be paid in fifteen (15) minute increments at the overtime rate for actual time worked.
- 4.6 Overtime - All work performed and which has been authorized by the Employer in excess of the employee's regularly scheduled shift length in any one (1) day or forty (40) hours in any one (1) week shall constitute overtime and be paid at one and one-half (1-1/2) times the employee's regular straight-time hourly rate of pay.
- 4.6.1 Overtime Increments - Overtime shall be paid in increments of fifteen (15) minutes round up to the nearest fifteen (15) minutes.
- 4.6.2 Time Worked Includes Holidays - In computing overtime, all contractual holidays shall be considered as time worked. *Bargaining Note- the city understands that sick, comp & vacation do count as time worked

- 4.6.3 Compensatory Time – Instead of overtime pay, an employee may choose to accrue compensatory time, up to a maximum balance of sixty (60) hours. An employee may at any time elect to be paid for some or all of the employee’s accrued compensatory time at the employee’s regular straight time rate of pay. No more than twenty-four (24) hours of compensatory time shall be carried over from year to year. All excess compensatory time will be paid as overtime pay. All accrued compensatory time over twenty-four (24) hours will be paid at the employee’s regular straight time rate of pay at the end of each year. Upon request of the employee and approval of the City Administrator or designee, the carryover limit may be increased due to winter season emergency overtime, in order to allow added time for the employee to schedule their compensatory time off.
- 4.6.4 Non-Emergent Overtime - All non-emergent overtime will be offered to qualified employees as follows:
- 4.6.4.1 The employer first distributes notice of an overtime opportunity, and a signup sheet for the event via e-mail to all employees in the division covered by this Agreement at least forty-eight (48) hours prior to the start of the overtime work. Any employee desiring to work overtime for that event must respond within twenty-four (24) hours of the notice, indicating their intent to work the overtime. Should no one sign up, then other qualified employees in the department will be given twenty-four (24) hours to sign up. Should no one sign up, then other qualified employees in the bargaining unit will be offered the opportunity to sign up. An employee who signs up for an overtime event commits to work that event, absent a bona fide emergency as determined in the discretion of the Employer.
- 4.6.4.2 The non-emergent overtime signup/notices will contain the following:
- a) The date and time of the event;
 - b) The deadline for signing up;
 - c) A listing of any special skill, experience and/or personal protective equipment (“PPE”) required or essential; and
 - d) The contact information of the person in charge.
- 4.6.4.3 The Employer will assign non-emergent overtime by seniority to the employees who have timely responded to the notice. In the event that an insufficient number of qualified employees timely respond, the Employer will assign the overtime to qualified employee(s) beginning with the least senior employee.
- Employees may express a preference for particular shifts. While the Employer will make an attempt to accommodate shift preferences, the Employer’s shift assignments under this section will be final.
- 4.6.5 Emergent Overtime - For emergent call outs, seniority rotation shall not apply. Emergent overtime is assigned based on operational need, including qualifications.

- 4.7 Standby Duty - Unless an exception is granted and approved by the Employer, an employee must be able to report to the employees work site within sixty (60) minutes of receiving notification they are being called out. Standby Duty is assigned by Division and rotate on a weekly basis or by shift bid among those crew members who have indicated a desire to serve on Standby and who are qualified to fulfill the responsibilities of Standby. In the event that there are not enough qualified employees who volunteer for Standby Duty in the Division, the Employer will offer the Standby Duty to those qualified employees outside of the Division in rotation. In the event that no qualified employees volunteer for the Standby Duty, the Employer will assign Standby by rotation, beginning with the least senior qualified employee. Members who are on Standby must make sure that they are able to respond in a timely manner. Employees on Standby are obligated to respond when called in to work. Employees will not report to work while on Standby Duty in a condition that would violate the Drug Free Workplace Policy.
- 4.7.1 Standby Duty Compensation - Employees will be compensated for 6.75 hours at their overtime rate of pay per week while on Standby.
- 4.8 Definition of Divisions - For purposes of this Article, the Departments are divided into ten (10) divisions, the Water Division, the Parks and Streets Division, the Stormwater and Urban Forestry Division, the Wastewater Division, the Fleet and Facilities Division, the Building Division, the IT Division, the Engineering Division, Police Division and the Administrative Division.

ARTICLE 6 PROBATION PERIOD, SENIORITY, LAYOFF, RECALL AND JOB VACANCIES

- 6.1 Probation Period – At date of hire a new employee will be subject to a six (6) month probation period with no access to the grievance process to contest their dismissal. The probation period will automatically extend during any leaves of absence. While on probation an employee is at-will and may be released from employment at any time by the Employer. In order to extend the probation period up to ninety (90) days, the Employer must identify the areas of improvement and have mutual agreement with the Union.
- 6.1.1 Probation for Promoted Employees – An employee who promotes to a higher classification will be subject to a four (4) month probation period in the new position. The probationary period will extend during any leaves of absence. During the promotional probationary period, the employee will be evaluated by the Employer and is subject to removal at the sole discretion of the Employer. A promoted employee who does not successfully complete their promotional probation may return to their prior position provided it is vacant.

- 6.2 Seniority - An employee's seniority is defined as that period from the employee's date of hire or rehire in the bargaining unit, whichever is most recent.
- 6.2.1 Break in Seniority - An employee's seniority ceases upon:
- Justifiable discharge;
 - Voluntary quit;
 - Layoff or leave of absence exceeding twenty-four (24) months.
- 6.3 Layoff - In case of a layoff, the least senior employee in the affected job classification will be laid off first, provided those employees remaining on the job are qualified to perform the work left by the vacancy. The Employer will provide an employee with four (4) weeks' notice of layoff. The employee designated for layoff may bump a less senior employee in any lower job classification for which the more senior employee is qualified. Qualified means having demonstrated skills and required experience to perform the job. If there is no employee in the next lower job classification who is less senior than the person scheduled for layoff, that person may look progressively to the next lower job classification for such bumping rights. The employee who is bumped by the affected employee has the same rights under this Article.
- 6.4 Recall - In the case of recall, those employees laid off last will be recalled first. An employee on layoff must keep both the Employer and the Union informed of the address and telephone number where they can be contacted. The Employer will send written notice of recall, postage paid, certified U.S. Mail to the last address provided in City employment records.
- 6.4.1 Termination of Recall Rights - If the former employee does not respond to the offer of recall, the Union will be notified. If neither the Union nor the Employer are able to contact the employee within seven (7) calendar days from the time the Union is notified, the Employer's obligation to recall the employee ceases. The Employer has no obligation to recall an employee after the employee has been on continuous layoff for a period of two (2) years. Should an employee not return to work when recalled, the Employer has no further obligation to recall the employee.
- 6.5 Job Vacancies - When a permanent job vacancy occurs in the bargaining unit, present employees who apply and meet the qualifications for the vacancy will be offered an interview. In applying this provision, it is the intent to promote qualified employees and to permit the Employer to fill vacancies with the most qualified applicant.
- 6.5.1 Notice of Job Vacancies - Notice of permanent job vacancies in the bargaining unit will be emailed to the members at least seven (7) calendar days prior to the closing date. Present employees who desire consideration for such openings shall submit any required materials by the deadline.

ARTICLE 14 GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

- 14.1 A grievance is an alleged violation of the express provisions of this Agreement arising during the term of this Agreement. It is the intent of the parties that the following procedure is the exclusive remedy for resolving grievances. The employee has the right to Union representation during the grievance procedure. The employee, the Union or the Employer can file a grievance at Step One.
- 14.1.1 Timelines. When the term “days” is used in this Article, it refers to calendar days. If the last day of a timeline lands on a weekend or holiday, the time line is automatically extended to the next business day at 5:00 P.M. By mutual written agreement between the Employer and the Union, timelines contained in this Article may be extended.
- 14.2 Step One - The grievance must first be presented to the employee’s Department Head or designee in writing containing: (a) the facts on which the grievance is based; (b) a reference to the provision in this agreement allegedly violated; and (c) the remedy sought. The grievant must submit the grievance within fourteen (14) calendar days of its occurrence or reasonable knowledge of the occurrence, otherwise the grievance is invalid and subject to no further processing.
- The Department Head or designee will meet with the employee or Union representative within fourteen (14) calendar days and issue a written response to the grievance within fourteen (14) calendar days of the meeting.
- 14.3 Step Two - If the grievance is denied at Step One, the grievance must be submitted to the Mayor or designee by the employee or Union representative within fourteen (14) calendar days of the Step One response. The Mayor or designee will meet with the employee and/or Union representative within ten (10) calendar days and issue a written response within fourteen (14) calendar days after the meeting.
- 14.4 Step Three - If the grievance is denied at Step Two, the Union may request the grievance be referred to a neutral third party within twenty (20) calendar days of the Step Two response by sending written notice to the Mayor. Representatives from the Employer and the Union will consult within seven (7) calendar days to attempt to agree on an arbitrator. If the parties cannot agree, the parties will jointly request the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service (FMCS) to provide a list of nine (9) arbitrators with offices in Washington or Oregon. The Employer and the Union will alternatively strike from the list until one name remains. The order of striking will be determined by coin toss, the loser striking the first name. The one name remaining will be the arbitrator.

- 14.5 The arbitrator will hold a hearing at which the parties may submit their case concerning the grievance. The arbitrator has no power to render a decision that adds to, subtracts from, alters, changes or modifies the terms of this Agreement. The arbitrator's power is limited to interpretation and application of the express terms of this Agreement. The decision of the arbitrator is final and binding on the Employer, the Union and the employees involved.
- 14.6 The cost of the Arbitrator will be borne equally by the Employer and the Union. Each party bears its costs of presenting its own case including attorney's fees.
- 14.7 There may be some instance where an outside agency or party may be used for mediation of a grievance, if both the Employer and Union agree.
- 14.8 The arbitrator's decision will be issued in writing within thirty (30) calendar days following the close of the hearing or the submission of briefs by the parties, whichever is later, unless the parties agree to an extension.

 - To assign bargaining unit work to temporary replacement employees.

15.2 The above is intended to be exclusive and does not exclude any historical or normal rights of management.

ARTICLE 16 SEPARABILITY AND SAVINGS

16.1 Should any provision of this Agreement be held invalid by operation of law or by a tribunal of competent jurisdiction, or if compliance with or enforcement of any provision is restrained by such tribunal, the remainder of this Agreement will not be affected and the parties will enter into immediate collective bargaining negotiations for the purpose of arriving at a mutually satisfactory replacement of such provision.

ARTICLE 17 PERSONNEL POLICIES

17.1 The City’s Personnel Policies as they now exist or may hereafter be amended apply to all matters not expressly covered by this Collective Bargaining Agreement. 18.2 Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 18.1, this Agreement and all of its terms and provisions shall continue to remain in full force and effect during the course of negotiations on a new Labor Agreement until such time as the terms of a new Agreement have been reached or an impasse has been reached and declared by the Employer and/or the Union, whichever is the sooner; provided however, in no event shall an impasse be declared earlier than one (1) year following the expiration date of this Agreement.

18.3 The parties agree to begin bargaining for a successor agreement no later than October of 2026.
