

Proclamation

WHEREAS, National Preparedness Month provides an opportunity for residents, businesses, organizations, and community partners throughout the City of Snoqualmie to take meaningful steps to prepare for emergencies and disasters, including natural hazards and human-caused events; and

WHEREAS, emergency preparedness is a shared responsibility that can help reduce the loss of life, protect property, strengthen community resilience, lessen the economic impacts of disasters, and every individual, family, business, and organization has an important role in preparing for, responding to, and recovering from emergencies; and

WHEREAS, developing an emergency plan, building an emergency preparedness kit, staying informed, and knowing how to respond during an emergency are important steps individuals and families can take to protect themselves and help build a safer, stronger, and more resilient Snoqualmie community; and

NOW, THEREFORE I, James Mayhew, Mayor of City of Snoqualmie, do hereby proclaim the Month of September, 2026, as:

in the City of Snoqualmie and encourage all residents, businesses, organizations, and community members to make emergency preparedness a priority and take steps to protect themselves, their families, their neighbors, and our community.

APPROVED, this 24th, day of August, 2026.

James Mayhew, Mayor
