

DRAFT – Mission Statement for the Snoqualmie Economic Development Commission

August 17, 2022

The Snoqualmie Economic Development Commission will work to identify diverse economic opportunities, recruit and retain local businesses and foster the spirit of entrepreneurship and strategic partnerships, while supporting a vibrant tourism economy in balance with a healthy community and abundant natural resources. The Commission will present opportunities and recommendations to support business strategies and goals set by City Council.