

Proclamation

WHEREAS, the television show Twin Peaks created by Mark Frost and David Lynch debuted in 1990 and changed television forever by breaking new ground and inspiring numerous other television shows; and

WHEREAS, Twin Peaks returned to television again in 2017, challenging viewers anew and garnering awards and critical acclaim; and

WHEREAS, Twin Peaks captivated television viewers around the world with scenes filmed in Snoqualmie and the Snoqualmie Valley that emphasized the natural beauty and history of our region; and

WHEREAS, Twin Peaks has drawn tourists year-round to Snoqualmie, the Snoqualmie Valley, and the Greater Seattle area for more than 35 years; and

WHEREAS, Twin Peaks has placed many Snoqualmie and Snoqualmie Valley locations, landmarks and businesses into popular culture, including: Snoqualmie Falls, Mt. Si, Olallie State Park, the Salish Lodge & Spa, the Snoqualmie Lumber Mill and the DirtFish Rally School, The Centennial Log, Reinig Road, Twede's Cafe, The Roadhouse Restaurant & Inn, Smokey Joe's Bar & Grill, Mt. Si High School, the Reinig Bridge, Meadowbrook Bridge, and the Northwest Railway Museum Snoqualmie Depot; and

WHEREAS, February 24 is celebrated by Twin Peaks fans world-wide as the day when the character of FBI Special Agent Dale Cooper arrived in the town of Twin Peaks.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, James Mayhew, Mayor of the City of Snoqualmie, do hereby proclaim Tuesday, February 24, 2026 to be in the City of Snoqualmie and invite people everywhere to celebrate by "giving yourself a present" of donuts, cherry pie and fine coffee, and planning to come visit our beautiful Snoqualmie Valley soon.

TWIN PEAKS DAY

APPROVED, this 9th day of February 2026.

---

James Mayhew, Mayor

