

CITY OF STAR Idaho

PROCLAMATION

REMEMBRANCE AND SOLIDARITY DAY

WHEREAS, on October 7, 2023, Israel suffered a devastating terrorist attack in which innocent people were murdered, families were torn apart, and hostages were taken; and

WHEREAS, the State of Idaho honors the victims, survivors, their families, and all those whose lives have been forever changed by the attacks; and

WHEREAS, the State of Idaho recognizes the historic and enduring friendship between Idaho, the United States, and the State of Israel, and reaffirms its solidarity with the people of Israel and the Jewish people in the face of terrorism and antisemitism; and

WHEREAS, Idaho recognizes the contributions of its Jewish community and stands against antisemitism, hatred, terrorism, and religious persecution in all forms; and

WHEREAS, remembering October 7 helps preserve the memory of those lost and teaches future generations the importance of human dignity, freedom, security, and peaceful coexistence;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Trevor A. Chadwick, Mayor of the City of Star, Idaho, do hereby proclaim October 7, 2026, as OCTOBER 7 REMEMBRANCE AND SOLIDARITY DAY in Idaho, and call upon Idahoans to remember the victims, stand in solidarity with the Jewish community and the people of Israel, and reject antisemitism and terrorism.

Signed this 6th day of October, 2026

Mayor Trevor A. Chadwick
