Stevenson, Washington GOAL SETTING

A Preparation Packet For July 2020 Session

City of Stevenson P.O. Box 371 Stevenson, WA 98648 509-427-5970

Notes to Readers

INTRODUCTION

This packet has been developed to help you prepare for the upcoming goal-setting session your council has scheduled. In the firm belief that the more time you spend "ahead of time, the less you will spend at the time," this packet encourages you to complete several quick exercises in the way of "homework." Much of the material in the packet is to stimulate your best thinking about the condition of the city and its future. Read each of the pages and complete the suggested exercises. Return them to the city administrator as soon as they are finished and well ahead of the scheduled session. Staff will use the information to prepare for the session and to prepare various posters and displays to be used during the session.

WHAT CAN YOU EXPECT IN A GOAL-SETTING SESSION?

The technique and processes used in this goal-setting approach are simple, straightforward, and to the point. Provided the homework packets are completed and returned to the collection point on time, when you enter the goal-setting session, you will find already posted and ready for processing, the summarized results of the collective homework packets of each of the council members. There are several steps involved in the goal-setting process.

STEP 1: DISCUSS LONG-RANGE ISSUES

Participants will review and discuss the long-range issues the city will be facing (see page 5).

STEP 2: DISCUSS POSSIBLE GOALS

Participation will consist of a review of the posted goals to ensure that each participant understands clearly, what the statement means.

STEP 3 GROUP GOALS BY TOPIC

The group begins the process of clustering various goal statements into logical groupings under appropriate headings (e.g., Economic Development, Downtown Redevelopment, Tourism, etc.). This step is the lengthiest portion of the goal-setting process, because as the clustering process is taking place, the individual goals are edited, analyzed, and often rewritten to meet the needs of the group.

STEP 4: PRIORITIZE GOALS

During this step, resource points are distributed among the various goals and objectives to represent the collective sense of priority of the council as a whole. Without this step, the goal-setting process is useless to those who are responsible for carrying out the policies of the council.

HOW CAN YOU HELP MAKE THE GOAL-SETTING SESSION MOST EFFECTIVE?

There are several things you can do to help make the session a productive one. First, complete the homework packet and turn it in well ahead of time. Second, come to the session prepared to listen, discuss, and make commitments and decisions for the city. And third, come to the session with the understanding that probably not all of your goals will be the same or of the same priority as those of others on the council, and that to be effective, the final goals must represent the needs of the city and of the whole council. Therefore, be prepared to negotiate, compromise, and work for solutions and goals that are the best for all parties involved. Finally, be prepared for some hard work, some fun, and, when it is all over, the satisfaction of knowing you've done something productive and really important for your city.

Looking Back

1.	Review the goals you set last year. Using a scale from 1 - 10, assign a rating of how successful you believe you as a council were in accomplishing each of the goals.
1	10
Tota Uns	Totally Successful Successful
2.	When you have finished rating each of last year's goals, analyze the reason for the varying degrees of success and failure that your ratings represent.
	For those goals receiving a high rating, try to determine what events, circumstances and conditions helped in the achievement of these good results
	For those with low ratings, identify the events, circumstances and conditions that prevented the council and city from successfully accomplishing the goal.
	Are any patterns apparent in your analysis?
	Were your goals too unrealistic?
	Did you set goals that were high enough?
	Are you able to accurately assess how well you really did with respect to goal accomplishment?
	Did you have too many goals for the resources and time? Too Few?
3.	Based upon this analysis and upon your experience with goal-setting, both as a specific activity and as a management tool for the city over the last year, what suggestions and recommendations do you have that will help make the goal-setting process more effective for this next year? Include your suggestions with those on page 9.

Gathering Information

Before going any further in preparing for the goal-setting session, gather some information. Talk to people. Talk to...

Business People Homemakers Students

Lawyers Doctors Plumbers

Teachers Retirees Kids

People on the Street Waiters Cooks

Mechanics Laborers City Employees

Department Heads Truck Drivers Special Interest Groups

Church Officials Grocers Newcomers

People Who Haven't Voted in Five Years

Ask about their concerns, their ideas, their solutions and goals. Talk to people you don't normally talk to. Talk to people about their city and what they think you, as an individual councilor, and you as a city council together should be doing.

Review the events of last year, the goals established and the achievements actually attained. Develop a feel for the relative expenditures necessary for goal achievement. Consider:

The time involved.

The personnel resources required.

The money required.

The projects that did not get done because of higher priority projects.

The time, resources, and money necessary to maintain the advances of last year.

The unforeseen events that transpired which caused you to be less effective than you would have liked.

Look to the future. What events or circumstances are likely to come along during this next goal cycle to upset the best of intentions? What must you be prepared for?

Down the Road

Using your knowledge of the city and your feelings for its long-range future, speculate as to the major issues the city will have to address during the next 5, 10, 20 years. Identify several of them. List them below, and tell how you think the city should begin preparing to deal with them.

Criteria for Effective Goals

"THE BEST CRITERIA OF A GOAL IS THIS: IS IT USEFUL?"

SPECIFICITY: General goals are less useful than specific ones because specific ones imply next steps.

PERFORMANCE: Performance or action-oriented goals are more effective in guiding staff in what to do than are non-performance goals. Do not confuse statements as goal-statements. Goal-statements lead to action, whereas statements, positions, or beliefs may only describe a condition.

INVOLVEMENT: Goal statements should identify who is to be involved in goal accomplishment and to what extent.

REALISM: Each goal must be realistically attainable.

OBSERVABILITY: Goal statements must be written so that an observer will be able to tell when and whether or not the goal is being accomplished. The more observable the goal, the easier it is to judge effectiveness.

The 10 Most Important Goals

I Think We Should Pursue This Next Year

Based upon your experiences last year, your beliefs and perceptions about the future of the city, and the ideas and concerns you have generated in working through this booklet, list the ten top goals you would like to see addressed this next year. You do not need to prioritize them. Write your goal statements with the "criteria for effective goals in mind."

The Effective City Council

- maintains a clear and cooperatively established set of goals;
- encourages open, two-way communication between one another;
- respects the knowledge, skills, and special interests of each other;
- handles dissent, conflict, and controversy in a positive, constructive, and professional manner;
- recognizes and acts upon the importance of presenting a solid unity after decisions have been made, even though individuals might have voted and lobbied for a different decision prior to a vote;
- understands that the council is only effective as a single unit;
- recognizes that councilors have different constituencies and beliefs, and that each represents a legitimate part of the community - no more and no less than any other councilor;
- recognizes the differences between arguing and problem-solving;
- does not personalize issues and decisions; and
- understands that one is seldom going to have all decisions go the way one wants, and accepts and works positively within that framework.

Working Together

What ideas do you have about becoming a more effective council? What are some goals you think the council as a group should set for itself in order to become a more effective body? Use your past experience, your perceptions of council functioning, and the information generated by working through this book let to develop your ideas. List them on this sheet.
