I didn't realize I needed to sign up to speak at tonight's meeting. Then the time was up, except for allowing Mr Lauser to claim extra time.

I do have a comment that I would like to have entered into the record.

I don't think the Lauser/nudity situation is the issue. Most children see more on TV than seeing fake anatomy in a public forum. The issue is the lack of judgement and the disrespect to the public shown by Mr Lauser. His intent, besides gaining 15 minutes of fame, was to divide the community n foster dissention.

Aside from the recent displays of inappropriate behavior, I would remind you of his response to a Facebook post last June. In that post, a woman stated she was offended by a man in a bikini bottom and bikini top singing a lewd song on the loudspeaker. The location was at Teo Park, next to an ongoing Farmers Market. And Mr Lauser's response was, "Oh, you're offended? Well next year we will be louder n prouder." Direct quote.

There's the problem, an in-your- face attitude that shows no respect for anyone that doesn't suit his agenda.

And my response to Mr Lauser is to not participate in his fantasy. I will not address him by his preferred pronoun as it implies a respect I don't believe he deserves.

I do believe he deserves an opportunity to resign from council or be relieved if his position.

Respectfully submitted
