Those not yet in elected office will need to register after November 3.

Getting elected to city council is just the beginning. Once you start your role, there are many things to learn — and quickly. Get a head start by attending this popular event that explores the most important legal and functional roles of city elected officials in Washington.

- Understand your roles and responsibilities
- Learn important ethical considerations to keep you on the right side of the law
- Examine real-world municipal scenarios with onsite legal counsel
- Network with other city leaders in your region

This event fulfills the Open Government Training Act's specific training requirements (including public records, records retention, and open public meetings) for elected officials.
