Title Company shall act as the closing escrow agent with respect to the Transaction and the title company issuing title insurance upon the Real Property at Closing. The Earnest Money shall be refundable to Buyer during the Due Diligence Review period upon written termination of the PSA by Buyer in accordance with the terms provided in Section 3 below. After expiration of the Due Diligence Period, the Earnest Money shall be non-refundable to Buyer except as expressly provided otherwise in the PSA.

3. Due Diligence Review

For a period of 90 days from the date of full execution of the PSA, Buyer will be entitled to inspect and analyze the Real Property, including conduct site inspections (provided that invasive testing shall be subject to Seller's prior consent in its discretion) and other traditional due diligence investigations at the Real Property, subject to such rules and limitations as may be established in the PSA. Such information shall be subject to certain confidentiality requirements and limitations, as shall be set forth in greater detail in the PSA.

The Parties may mutually agree to extend the Due Diligence review period.

4. Contingencies

Before the expiration of the Due Diligence Review period identified above, Buyer must be satisfied with the due diligence review and information and documents provided by Seller, as well as verification of all permits and licenses and an agreement on the terms of the definitive agreement. If such satisfaction has not occurred prior to the expiration of the Due Diligence Review period, Buyer may terminate the PSA upon written notice before the expiration of the review period and receive a return of its earnest money deposit minus 10% non-refundable fee of the total earnest deposit.

5. Closing Date.

The buyer's acquisition of the Real Property shall occur on the 30th day after the expiration, or earlier waiver, of the Due Diligence Review period set forth in Section 3 above. Buyer shall deliver the entire Purchase Price for the Real Property (subject to application of the Earnest Money against such amount owing) in cash or other immediately available U.S. federal funds at Closing, and the parties shall deliver the closing deliverables to be identified in the PSA.

6. Definitive Agreement

Because this Agreement is a non-binding manifestation of the parties' interest in attempting to negotiate a binding agreement, the parties agree that neither party shall be bound with respect to the purchase and sale of the Real Property until after both parties execute a formal written agreement with respect to the purchase and sale of or the lease with option to buy the Real Property (the "PSA"), as shall be negotiated by the parties and their respective legal counsel.

7. Exclusive Negotiation Period

The Seller agrees that, during the 90 Days period following the date of full execution of this LOI, it will not negotiate or agree to negotiate, whether directly or indirectly, with any other party concerning the sale of its Real Property, so as to provide Buyer with an opportunity to negotiate a potential PSA with Seller. Notwithstanding the foregoing, in no event shall this LOI create any obligation upon Seller to agree to execute the PSA and/or sell the Real Property to Buyer if Seller, in its sole and exclusive discretion and with or without cause or reason, elects not to enter into a binding PSA with Buyer. Upon expiration of the foregoing 90 Days period, the restrictions in this Section 7 shall immediately and automatically terminate, and Seller may thereafter negotiate or market the sale of the Real Property as it deems appropriate in its sole discretion. The Seller agrees that, during the term of the PSA, it will continue to operate and maintain the Real Property in the same manner and condition as it has prior in the time prior to the execution of the PSA. To induce Seller to grant to Buyer the ___-day period exclusive negotiation period provided in this Section above, Buyer has agreed to pay to Seller a non-refundable $61,000 "exclusive negotiation fee. The seller would not have agreed to grant such an exclusive negotiation period without receipt of the aforementioned fee. Consistent with the terms of this LOI, in no event shall payment and receipt of this exclusive negotiation fee create any binding obligation upon Seller to enter a PSA or to convey the Real Property to Buyer.

8. Public Announcements and Confidentiality Agreement

The Parties agree not to release any information to the public regarding the Letter of any potential agreement without the separate written consent of all parties involved. The parties agree that any information concerning the transaction contemplated within this Letter shall remain confidential; provided, however, that the parties may disclose information concerning the transaction to the public or governmental agencies if, in the judgment of their respective legal counsels, such disclosure is necessary to comply with applicable law.

9. Non-Bonding Agreement

The parties agree to be bound by Sections 7 and 8 above. However, the parties are not bound or otherwise obligated by any other term herein and that no such term creates any rights or obligations whatsoever. As provided herein above, this LOI shall in no event create any contractual right of Buyer with respect to the Real Property, nor shall it create any obligation upon Seller to enter into a PSA or to convey the Real Property to Buyer.
