Presentation given by Mayor Pro Tem George Turner stating that constituents are concerned about campaign signs being left on the streets following an election period. It was suggested that a fine is implemented to those who fail to remove signs or charged a fee at the time of submitting an application and using those funds to employ a service to gather signs. Councilmember Terry Fye suggested the city should stay clear in terms of the applications and removal of the signs. The Board of Elections can help with the removal of campaign signs. Attorney Thompson stated that the City of Stonecrest should adhere to the sign ordinance in the city. The signs are required to be picked up withing a certain time.
