Citizen Comments – Including comments from public/stakeholders (3 minutes per comment)

Comments from the Public

The public comments are reserved exclusively for comments from the public and not for immediate reply. The purpose of public comment is to allow the public to voice city related requests, concerns or opinions only during the public comment portion of the City Council meeting. I. The Mayor and City Council reserves the right to extend or limit the length of public comments based on: (1) the issue under discussion; (2) the number of items on the agenda; and (3) the extent to which the speaker remains constructive in their comments and questions. II. The public may not directly confront the public speaker but must direct all comments and questions to the Mayor and City Council. III. Public harassment of or confrontation with a public speaker will not be tolerated. Members of the public violating tenets two or three will be asked to sit down or leave the premises.

Citizen Comment #1 (A. Williams): Williams emphasized the necessity of repairing the speed sign at the intersection of Mountain View and Stone Trace to enhance traffic safety.

Citizen Comment #2 (Cheryl Dudley): Dudley discussed the critical importance of voting and outlined various strategies to ensure that individuals do not lose their right to vote.

Citizen Comment #3 (Joan Monroe): Monroe highlighted the need for crime reports to be made available online. Monroe expressed dissatisfaction with the current state of Mainstreet and its visibility.

Citizen Comment #4 (Shante Lewis): Lewis addressed the challenges the community has faced following the hurricane, particularly the lack of trash pickup and mail services. Lewis underscored the urgency of addressing these ongoing issues.

Citizen Comment #5 (Kay Nunez): Nunez expressed gratitude to the Council for the progress made in the city, noting the enhanced safety measures that have been implemented.

Citizen Comment #6 (Ms. Thomas): Thomas voiced concerns regarding the proposed bond, cautioning against potential hazards associated with bonding the funds. Thomas urged the Council to carefully consider the potential liabilities involved.

Citizen Comment #7 (Clint Monroe): Monroe stressed the significance of having robust incident response plans and the necessity for the city to maintain a backup generator. Monroe inquired about the type of gas source being used and reiterated the importance of voter registration and participation.
