PRESENTATIONS

1. Proclamation Denoting National Forensic Science Week

Mayor Svien read the Proclamation denoting September 18-24, 2022 as National Forensic Science Week.

Police Captain James Gresham presented a Certificate of Recognition to Jeanine Parmentier with SPD Criminal Investigation for her meritorious service in the field of Forensic Sciences.

8. Consider Approval of Resolution for Bullet-Resistant Shield Grant Program

Public Health and Safety Committee Chair Bob Newby introduced this item. Captain Gresham addressed the Council and explained that in August of 2022, the State of Texas opened grant applications for bullet-resistant shields. This program will provide up to $50 million for departments to purchase ballistic shields for use in high threat environments. These shields provide officers protection against bullet, rifle, and shrapnel. SPD has worked with a grant writer to apply for 15 shields totaling $101,016.41. As part of the application process, the City Council must approve the application. He also stated that there will be no matching funds required from the City of Stephenville if this grant is awarded to SPD.

MOTION by Bob Newby, second by Mark McClinton to approve Resolution 2022-R-18 approving a grant application for ballistic shield project for the City of Stephenville Police Department. MOTION CARRIED with a unanimous vote.

Mayor Svien recessed the open Special City Council Meeting at 5:38 PM and entered into Executive Session at 5:40 PM.
