Reason for Applying

I want to see a change in the atmosphere of the Stephenville Senior Citizen Center and make it a great place for older people to meet and enjoy fun and educational activities. I would like to see partnerships between the different advisory boards, community/civic organizations, and Tarleton State built to enhance our community and build on its success. I moved to Stephenville about 2 years ago and am seeing many changes coming and I am anxious to be a part of those changes. As a retired professional, I would like to offer my services where they could be utilized to make the most difference to improve/help make Stephenville even greater.

Educational Background

+30 in Administrative Education from Southeastern Louisiana University,
