Reason for Applying

I would like to become more involved in community matters. Although I have not attended a city council meeting, I do watch the live meetings online. My daughter is very active in SPARD and my husband volunteers coaching for multiple teams. I would like to be involved in an advisory board for SPARD to improve the experience for our youth.

Educational Background

BS in biomedical science - Tarleton state university

Medical doctorate - UTMB Galveston

Occupational Background

Cross timbers orthopedics - since august 2020 (orthopedic surgeon)

I held many job positions when attending Tarleton state university from 2007-2010 and was employed by the university as a tutor and supplemental instructor.

Relevant Experience

Involved in student government at Tarleton and in medical school at UTMB

Community Involvement

We have not yet been able to have or hold positions in the community as this is our second year here. However, my husband coaches multiple SPARD teams, we are involved in supporting the optimist club auction, chamber banquet, Cross timbers family services banquet, and multiple other charitable causes in the community.
