President's Office

Resolution to acknowledge and confirm the President's appointment of Cindy Henley-Robison to the position of Director of Human Resources. Cindy previously served as our Human Resources Manager, specializing in human resources, benefits, and payroll. She holds a degree from the University of New Orleans and completed the PRE-CPA program as part of her post-graduate studies. She is also certified as a SHRM-CP and by the American Payroll Institute.

For the past 10 years, Cindy has been an integral part of St. Tammany Parish Government, developing extensive expertise in workforce management, payroll administration, and organizational compliance. She has played a key role in implementing Munis and streamlining HR and payroll processes, resulting in greater efficiency and improved service delivery. Known for her professionalism and approachable nature, Cindy combines strong technical knowledge with a people-focused approach to leadership.
