

CITY OF SWEENEY
OFFICE OF THE MAYOR

Through the pen and the sword, Texans fought for independence from a government in Mexico that denied its citizens freedom and justice. While delegates gathered at Washington-on-the-Brazos on March 2, 1836, to sign the Texas Declaration of Independence, brave defenders continued fighting, many making the ultimate sacrifice and securing independence at the Battle of San Jacinto.

As those delegates declared 185 years ago, when a government ceases to protect the lives, liberty, and property of the people from whom its power is derived, that government becomes an instrument of oppression and must be abolished.

In the fall of 1835 at Gonzales, Texans of all backgrounds banded together to fight for the cause of liberty. Throughout the revolution, many heroic Texans were lost, most notably at the Alamo and Presidio La Bahia in Goliad, but their sacrifices were not in vain and served as a rallying cry for the Texian forces under General Sam Houston. Texas forces defeated Santa Anna at the Battle of San Jacinto on April 21, 1836, declaring victory and securing freedom for the Republic of Texas.

The vision of freedom set down by our founders in the Texas Declaration of Independence lives on in the Texas spirit today. As we continue building Texas, we must always remember how the sacrifices of past generations build the future for the next.

Therefore, I, Dusty Hopkins, Mayor of Sweeny, do hereby proclaim March 2nd, 2024, to be in Sweeny and urge the appropriate recognition whereof.

In official recognition whereof, I hereby affix my signature this the 20th day of February, 2024.

Mayor Dusty Hopkins
