Old Business

- a) Health Fair

Vice Chair Dalton stated that vendor applications would be going out shortly and that the Sweet Home Chamber of Commerce produced a flyer for the Health Fair. He requested that Committee Members review the previous year's vendor list and suggest any others that might be a good fit.

Committee Member Horton stated that the Diabetes Education group from Samaritan Health would join the general Samaritan Health table.

No action was required for this item.

b) Diabetes Education Training

Vice Chair Dalton stated that the Rotary Club hosted a presenter for Diabetes Education Training and that they expressed interest in returning to Sweet Home again. He asked if the Committee was interested in hosting and advertising to the community. There was consensus for same.

No action was required for this item.

New Business

a) Behavioral Health

Vice Chair Dalton asked the Committee to consider how to provide front-end impact on behavioral health, including education, in the community. Discussion ensued regarding student groups that were providing support for one another and how the Committee could potentially support the School District.

Vice Chair Dalton mentioned the importance of public green spaces for behavioral health. Committee Member Horton shared photos from Council Liaison Bronson, who was currently on a bicycle trip, depicting bicycles as public art to promote health and wellness. Discussion ensued on ways to do similar promotion in Sweet Home.

No action was required for this item.

Committee Business for the Good of the Order

Chair Wray highlighted the recent addition of a downtown mural.

Discussion ensued on potential topics related to environmental health and other potential presentations to the Committee.

Committee Member Jones stated that the Sweet Home Samaritan Clinic would be partnering with COMG-Northwest on June 6th to host a high school occupation fair.
