Old Business

- a) Committee Goals

Committee Member Jones entered at this time.

Assistant City Manager Pro Tem Pretty stated that she provided a packet with draft minutes from the City Council goal setting Work Session, two goal-related documents from the previous Committee meeting, and an additional goal-related document submitted by Committee Member Schumacher.

Chair Wray asked how the Community Health Committee had supported FAC and the Hope Center in the past. Committee Member Horton stated that the Committee had originally assisted in the original creation of FAC.

Chair Wray suggested the following goals for the coming year:

- Support and promote the Sweet Home Health Fair
- Organize at least one mini health forum
- Monitor and update the health resource list on the City's website quarterly
- Create a communication campaign to increase awareness of the Committee and local services
- Foster growth and partnership amongst current Sweet Home health partners

Committee Member Horton moved to adopt the goals as stated by Chair Wray. Vice Chair Dalton seconded the motion. The motion carried by the following vote:

AYE: Wray, Dalton, Grenz, Horton, Jones, Knowles

ABSENT: Schumacher

b) Annual Report Update

Chair Wray reviewed her draft presentation to be shared with the City Council at their next meeting. Discussion ensued regarding potential edits to the presentation.

No action was required for this item.
