

Proclamation

WHEREAS, The Tenino Depot Museum is a vital cultural institution that has preserved and interpreted the heritage of the Great City of Tenino and its citizens and the citizens of this Great Nation, and

WHEREAS, The Tenino Depot Museum, moved to its current location 50 years ago has served as a center of learning, inspiration, and community engagement since its establishment in the year 1975; and

WHEREAS, through its exhibitions, educational programs, and outreach efforts, The Tenino Depot Museum has enriched the lives of countless individuals and fostered a deeper appreciation for countless individuals and a deeper appreciation for the history, art, science of the citizens of the Great City of Tenino; and

WHEREAS, the citizens of this Great City Tenino Washington, encourage all citizens both near and far to visit and support the Tenino Depot Museum and cultural institutions.

NOW THEREFORE, the Mayor and Council for the Great City of Tenino do hereby proclaim this day, the celebration of the citizens of 1975 for their efforts to move and restore the Tenino Depot Museum to its current location in the Tenino City Park and all those that have served and helped the Tenino Depot Museum in all their efforts to maintain the high standards of a cultural establishment of the history of its citizens.

July 26, 2025

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, The Mayor and Council have hereunto set their hand and cause the Seal of the Great City of Tenino this day July 22, 2025, to celebrate this landmark anniversary of 50 years for the moving of the Tenino Depot Museum.

David Watterson, Mayor

Linda Gotovac, Mayor Pro-Tem

Elaine Klamn, Council Member

Jason Lawton, Council Member

John O'Callahan, Council Member

Jeff Eisel, Council Member