

BY THE CITY OF TENINO
- A PROCLAMATION - IN APPRECIATION OF
RANDY TRESENITTER & BAKER'S TOWING

WHEREAS, The City of Tenino has undertaken the restoration of a railroad caboose to feature as both an exhibit of the Tenino Depot Museum and as an attraction to add to the value of the Tenino City Park ; and

WHEREAS, The project has captured the imagination of Tenino citizens and business alike; and

WHEREAS, The City has limited resources to accomplish the restoration and relies mainly on the efforts of volunteers and philanthropists for the necessary labor and materials; and

WHEREAS, The relocation of the caboose trucks and chassis from the City's Public Works shops to the display site required the services of both a crane and equipment trailer; and

WHEREAS, Randy Tresenriter and Baker's Towing generously donated their time and equipment to move the trucks and chassis to the display site, saving the City several thousand dollars.

NOW, THEREFORE, we, the Mayor and Council of the City of Tenino Washington do hereby Proclaim the appreciation of The City for the generous contribution of time and materials by Mr. Randy Tresenriter and Baker's Towing to the Tenino Caboose Restoration Project.

Signed in the City of Tenino, Washington, this 14th day of July, 2020.
