

BY THE MAYOR OF THE TOWN OF THUNDERBOLT
A PROCLAMATION
50TH CLASS REUNION
SOL C JOHNSON HIGH SCHOOL

WHEREAS, Sol C. Johnson High School has stood as an important institution in the education and cultural history of Savannah, Georgia, carrying forward a proud tradition of academic achievement, leadership, service, athletics, and community involvement; and

WHEREAS, Sol C. High School was named in 1959 in honor of Sol. C. Johnson, a distinguished Savannah leader and the founder of the Savannah Tribune, a historic newspaper established to serve Savannah's African American community; and

WHEREAS, the Class of 1976 entered Sol C. Johnson High School during a significant period in the school's history and became part of a tradition established by earlier generations of students, teachers, administrators, coaches, parents and community leaders; and

WHEREAS, the Class of 1976 has now reached the extraordinary milestone of fifty years since graduation, representing five decades of accomplishments, challenges overcome, families raised, careers established, communities served, friendships maintained, and memories preserved; and

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT PROCLAIMED that I, Mayor Dana Williams and Mayor and Council do hereby celebrate the 50th anniversary of the graduates of Sol C. Johnson High School and shall celebrate this milestone with pride and gratitude, cherishing the memories of yesterday, embracing the blessings of today and looking forward to the years to come.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I set my hand and cause the Seal of Thunderbolt to be affixed this 12th day of August 2026.

Dana Williams, Mayor
Town of Thunderbolt
