Proclamation Celebrating Stacey Slowinski Citizen of Tinton Falls

WHEREAS, the Borough of Tinton Falls proudly recognizes residents who demonstrate exceptional dedication, leadership, and service to our community; and

WHEREAS, Stacey Slowinski has dedicated more than three decades to preserving the history, character, and cultural identity of Tinton Falls, strengthening our community through her unwavering volunteerism and commitment.

WHEREAS, since 1990, Stacey has served as Chairman of the Historic Preservation Commission, guiding efforts to protect historic sites and ensuring the preservation of the Borough's unique heritage; and

WHEREAS, her leadership at the Crawford House, including founding the Friends of the Crawford House in 2009 and overseeing its restoration, has transformed the site into an active center for learning, history, and community engagement; and

WHEREAS, Stacey's service extends to our library, schools, scouting programs, community gardens, and countless initiatives that support families, mentor youth, and strengthen community connections; and

WHEREAS, her kindness, humility, and lifelong commitment have created a positive and lasting impact on Tinton Falls;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Mayor Risa Clay, on behalf of the Borough Council and the residents of Tinton Falls, do hereby honor Stacey Slowinski as the 2026 Citizen of the Year for her extraordinary dedication and contributions to our community.

Mayor Risa Clay
