Meagan Mageo Biography

I have been employed with the City of Tomball since October 2014. I was hired as the Administrative Assistant for the Assistant City Manager, and was promoted to Project Coordinator in October 2015. During my time as a Project Coordinator, I obtained my Masters in Public Administration with a field of study in Emergency Management in hopes of being able to advance my career but more importantly be an asset to the community and residents I am privileged to serve.

During my employment with the City I have taken on numerous projects and been afforded the chance to learn so much about local government from those I work closely with. In March 2022, I was promoted to Project Manager which granted me more responsibility when it came to the projects I had always been assisting with. My new role has provided me with so many learning and growth opportunities for my profession and each day I look forward to the new and exciting things to come.

In May 2022, I was nominated by Councilman Stoll to serve on the Legacy Fund for Position 7, which does not require residency in Tomball. After the election I was reconfirmed on the board to a term to match Mayor Quinn's. I was honored by the nomination to the board, and I would love to continue serving in my position as many of my projects have fundraising and donation possibilities that the Legacy Fund is utilized for. I would love to see the Legacy Fund used to its capabilities and engage the community in fundraising opportunities that benefit the community and residents.
