Biography

I'm a fifth generation Texan- born in Dallas, TX January 1964.
University of Texas. We moved to the Klein area in 1976. I like to tell people that I was pollinated in Austin, germinated in Dallas, a blossomed in Houston. I don't like to talk much about the 8 years

I graduated from "The" Klein High School 1982. Made two semesters at North Harris County Community College before transferring to Stephan F Austin University where I studied wildlife biology. Dropped out of college and moved to Oak Bend apartments in Tomball in 1985 to take a job selling ladies swimwear for Catalina to support

In 1988 I took an account manager position with Salco Products on Hufsmith-Korhville road working for Mike Ott selling replacement parts for railcars serving the plastics & Petro-chemical industries. When I left Salco after 17 years in 2005 I was their Director of Sales.

I left Salco Products to start my own railcar products distribution company Steel Line Industrial Connections. The foundation of my business was an innovative vibration proof fastening system where the best market for us was the repair of aluminum bodied coal railcars. That went pretty well until 2012 when natural gas got very cheap, and the current administration in Washington DC created an anti coal fired power generation policy. Instead of repairing damaged coal cars with our fastening system the railcar was now simply sold as scrap metal. This forced me to find another way to make a living.

In 2011, I became interested in the American "bean to bar" craft chocolate movement. I taught myself how to make chocolate from a raw cocoa beans where I roast, crack, winnow, stone grind, temper, and mold chocolate for bars . With the support of we founded Tejas Chocolate, LLC, and began selling craft chocolate bars at the Tomball Farmers Market in 2012 as a side hustle. Turns out we were the very first Bean to Bar Chocolate maker in Texas. There was a period of time when we sold more chocolate to aficionados in New York City than in Texas. A short time thankfully.

By 2014, Steel Line was not doing well while the little chocolate hobby business was starting to grow. We were doing well at the Tomball Farmers Market, and that's where Wholefoods discovered our chocolate. Wholefoods put us in 6 Houston area stores. We also began selling bars to Central Market, Specs, and Kroger Marketplace stores. We decided to make Tejas Chocolate our full time endeavor and started to the process of closing Steel Line.

Chocolate alone was not yet producing enough revenue to support . We found the old house at 200 N Elm Street as it was advertised by the Hutson Group as a commercial property.

I was a backyard barbecue enthusiast and paying close attention to the craft barbecue scene starting to shine in Texas. We often heard from our customers at the Tomball Farmers Market that there were not enough great eateries in Tomball to support the area. People wanted more options for great food to enjoy. is a Chef, and I was pretty good at smoking meats.

We decided the bring our version of Texas style craft barbecue to Tomball where we purchase ultra premium grades of meats for smoking, and make our all of sides in house from scratch using our family heirloom recipes. We'd feature chocolate as our dessert options naturally. In October of 2015, after spending literally every dollar we had, we opened Tejas Chocolate + Barbecue at the building on Elm Street that we like to call The Craftory.

Nike bought chocolate from us for their VIP guests at the Super Bowl in 2017; The Janet Jackson wardrobe "malfunction" year. There was a lot of conversation on the Michael Berry show about barbecue in Houston during the Super Bowl time and several of our faithful followers called in to tell him about Tejas. I got to spend some time on the radio with Michael as a result of that. We saw a pretty big uptick in our sales from that radio exposure.

In May of 2017 Texas Monthly Magazine published their newest list of Top 50 BBQ joints, a list they publish just every 4 years. Tejas was ranked #6 in the state and #1 in the Houston Metro area on the list. That list was posted on Texas Monthly social media accounts on a Monday when we are closed. The very next day there was line all the way to the street. Making the TMBBQ Top 50 list literally shot us out of cannon. We made their Top 50 list again in 2021.

We've been ranked in the top 15 Best of the South by Southern Living Magazine the last two times they published their list. All of this exposure led to a large following of "Day Trippers" coming out for barbecue, and to take in Old Town Tomball. We created a numbering system, we call it "Golden Tickets" for Saturdays so people could save their place in line and go shop at the Farmers Market or any store in Old Town. I want our visitors from out of town to experience all my town had to offer.

Our restaurant has been featured on Food Networks Man Fire Food, and Food Paradise with episodes repeating all the time. We were also featured on Texas Country Reporter, and Texas Bucket List. These shows brought even more people to Tejas and Tomball.

In 2019 we decided to open Tejas Burger Joint at 214 W Main Street, based on a once a week burger special at our barbecue joint . This became the 4th building we are renting from the Hutson Group. Oh my.

By the grace of god we managed to survive the pandemic. The PPP loan program worked as we never had to let anyone go. and I opened The Craftory in 2015 with just us and 2 part time employees. Today we employ 54, and most of us live in Tomball.

Even with all the state and national recognition we've received, still to this day, my favorite moments are with our local regulars where we talk barbecue, sports, the news, or their own life events. Tomball has claimed us as one of their own and that is deeply rewarding for We bought a house on South Pine Street so we could be close to work and be more involved on our community. Our restaurant as matured to the point now where I can take some time for other duties and take a break here and there.

recently transferred our church to Real Life on Main St. I play golf whenever I can, and occasionally get out to go fishing & hunting. My real passion is creating food and serving our community. I can make the time, I always do what I say I will do, and I can walk to city hall from work or home. You'll often find me peddling my bicycle around to and from work. For these reasons I hope you will consider adding me to one of the decision boards. I'm all in on Tomball.

Cheers! Scott
