Matthew W Harris

I was born in Denver CO in 1977 and moved to Texas when I was 11 years old. My childhood was filled with wonderful family and lots of competitive sports. I attended Klein High School and later attended Stephen F Austin university. Like many young people, I proved to not be quite ready for the responsibilities of college and returned home in 1995. From there, I entered the workforce and started in with what was to be my first career. I worked at a local Tex-Mex restaurant and found my niche as both a server/bartender and later a manager. The company allowed me to formalize my passion and I later attended school where I received a Culinary degree. I continued to work within the company, steadily climbing the ladder. After steady employment with the same firm for 10 years, I left for an opportunity to open and operate my own restaurants. As you can imagine, this is relentless work and eventually it became too much and I left the hospitality field all together.

It was here where I entered my second career, vastly different than the first. I started working for a global logistics firm in their air export department. Fortunately for me, the company quickly took notice of my insatiable desire to perform well and I again started climbing the ladder. After four years, I was offered a senior level position located in our corporate headquarters in Seattle. After three years in Seattle, the opportunity presented itself to return to Texas which is where I find myself now.
